SPECIAL EDUCATION NEEDS (SEN)

ENROLMENTS - LAKE ROAD PTA SCHOOL PUPILS

Lake Road PTA School is accepting enrolments from Nursery to Grade Twelve for all prospecting Learners with Special Education Needs (LSEN) who wish to enrol in an All-INCLUSIVE learning environment. The enrolled learners with SEN will be given an opportunity to access all co-curricular activities that the School offers. The School's establishment include a strategic SEN Department that deals with Pupils with learning difficulties in Mathematics, Reading and Writing Skills. This Department is managed by our qualified and registered SEN Teacher with a minimum qualification of a Bachelor's Degree in/with Education.

SEN Department Objectives:

1. The SEN Teacher gives the Learners remedial lessons as well as other specialized learning activities aimed at improving their specific area/s of need.
2. SEN specialized learning offers an extensive reading program and provides fine motor muscle training to improve Learners' handwriting. The SEN Teacher is equal to this task which is demonstrated and performed effectively.
3. To ensure that ALL enrolled LSEN who join the School with a number of different difficulties are helped with personal educational development skills.
4. To ensure that LSEN are later integrated back to their classrooms and provided support for them to do better in order to be competitive academically and in other faculties.
